WHAT'S NEW

PLAYHOUSE

6506 Hollywood Blvd., Hollywood

Sights, sounds and colorful characters breathe new life into Hollywood's Fox Theatre. Three levels, four bars and one $16 million renovation later, Playhouse, the highly anticipated nightlife and performance venue, opens to the public. To create a captivating backdrop, owners Rob Vinokur and Elie Samaha employed sharp lighting and distinctive design elements. Next, they enlisted a passionate and skilled staff to bring energy and spirit to the venue. Bartenders hop on the trapeze, servers become serialists and impromptu burlesque shows take place. When it comes to a night at Playhouse, expect anything.
